

City Prosecutor

It is our mission to ethically and effectively prosecute the guilty, protect crime victims, and improve the quality of life in Long Beach. We are committed to ensuring that justice is done.

Department Goals

Overview

The City Prosecutor is entrusted with the prosecution of all adult misdemeanor and infraction violations of state and local law. Approximately 14,000 cases are handled by the City Prosecutor each year.

Types of Cases Prosecuted

Cases prosecuted by the City Prosecutor range from relatively minor crimes to significant acts of violence; however, the District Attorney, not the City Prosecutor, prosecutes all felonies and juvenile cases.

The following is a small sampling of some of the crimes prosecuted by the City Prosecutor:

- DUI
- Battery
- Prostitution
- Overweight commercial vehicles
- Vehicular manslaughter
- Public Intoxication
- Commercial Burglary
- Failure to register as sex offender
- Child and Elder abuse
- Lewd conduct in public
- Resisting or obstructing a law enforcement officer
- Cruelty to animals
- Reckless driving
- Building without a permit (e.g., garage conversion)
- Driving on suspended license
- Under the influence of drugs
- Violation of court order (includes gang injunctions)
- Domestic violence
- Hit and run
- Carrying concealed weapon
- Code Enforcement
- Unlicensed business
- Contributing to the Delinquency of a minor

Investigating Agencies

A number of state, county and city agencies and departments present cases to the City Prosecutor. After an investigating agency presents a case for potential criminal prosecution, the City Prosecutor must independently review the facts and law to determine if the matter is appropriate for criminal prosecution. Examples of some investigating and referring agencies include:

- Long Beach Police Dept.
- Other City Departments, including Code Enforcement, Health Department, Animal Control, Harbor Patrol, Fire Department, Building Department
- CA Contractors State Licensing Board
- CA Highway Patrol
- LA Sheriff's Dept
- CA Fish & Game
- Cal-OSHA
- Cal-EPA
- CSU Police Dept
- Other prosecuting agencies (e.g., District Attorney, Attorney General)

Department Goals

Priorities and Accomplishments

The City Prosecutor's Office has been a leader in obtaining gang injunctions and prosecuting gang members.

In 2010, the City Prosecutor announced two of the most significant gang injunctions in the City's history. There have been more gang injunction convictions in Long Beach in the last 12 months (over 100) than ever before in the history of the City.

In addition to gang prosecutions, the City Prosecutor works with the Police Department, Long Beach Unified School District, and community groups on gang prevention and anti-truancy programs.
